THE ELECTION BILL.

It Occupies the Entire Time of the Senate.

NO DEFINATE ACTION TAKEN.

The Senate Adjourns Until Friday Noon With the Understanding that a Further Adjournment Will Take Place Until Monday Noon—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—In the senate the morning hour was spent in the discussion of Mr. Morgan's resolution instructing the committee on privileges and elections to report as to the contents and meaning of the election bill. A resolution was agreed to directing the superintendent of census to report the population of the United States by congressional districts and counties.

Debate on the election bill was continued, Mr. George speaking at length in opposition to the bill. Mr. George proceeded to review and to defend the course of the people of Mississippi in the adoption of their new constitution and to discuss the constitution and statutes of other states on the subject of suffrage and of negroes. In conclusion, Mr. George said that he was prepared to defend the suffrage cause of the new Mississippi constitution upon legal grounds and upon precedent furnished by the states of Connecticut, Vermont, Wyoming and Idaho. Mr. George gave notice that he would finish his speech when the senate met again.

DEATH OF GENERAL SPINNER. The Ex-Treasurer of the United States Passes Peacefully Away.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 1.—Gen. L. E. Spinner, ex-treasurer of the United States, died at his home in this city at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday night. Since Tuesday morning he gradually collapsed and when death came the change was hardly noticeable. There were at the bedside Gen. Spinner's daughter, M. s. James Schumacher, the only child now living, and her husband and son, and two great grandchildren, and Mr. Thomas C. Moore and his son. Gen. Spinner leaves several grandchildren in New York state, children of Mrs. D. A. Clark, of Mohawk, and of Mrs. F. C. Harvey, of Buffalo, both deceased. The body will be taken to Mohawk, N. Y., for burial.

None will feel more sincere sorrow over the news of his death than the women employees of the treasury department, and in fact of the whole government. For it was Gen. Spinner who broke down the barrier which prevented their performing clerical work for the government. This occurred during the war when the regular clerks were disappearing to enlist in the army, and it looked as if there was not going to be men enough to go around. Then it was that the chivalric Gen. Spinner suggested to President Lincoln that an opportunity be given women to take the men's places where possible. It is astonishing when we look at it to think of the opposition this idea met with. But Spinner gained his point, and the entry of women into the government service may be looked upon as a "war measure" just as Ben. Butler's suggestion to make the "darkies contraband."

Gen. Spinner was born in New York state in 1822. His father was a clergyman and the cashier of the Mohawk Valley bank for twenty years. He gave his son a classical education. He learned several trades and then embarked as a merchant. He was appointed and held responsible positions in the New York custom house from 1845 to 1849. He was elected to the Thirty-fourth congress as an anti-slavery Democrat, and re-elected to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth congresses, though he was elected to the latter as a Republican. On March 16, 1861, President Lincoln appointed him treasurer of the United States, soon after which his wonderful autograph on the paper money became a welcome visitor in the households of the land. This signature, which we reproduce in fac-simile, will always remain one of the curiosities of chirography.

Gen. Spinner retired to private life July 1, 1875. When he did so all the wealth in the United States treasury till had to be counted. Then it was that a deficiency was discovered amounting to one cent. To account for this a memorable recounting took place, requiring days upon days, until the missing cent was found and the general fund from the treasury, leaving balanced books.

CASUALTIES OF THE BATTLE.

An Official Report of the Killed and Wounded Soldiers.

PINE RIDGE, S. Dak., Jan. 1.—The hospital headquarters here where all the killed and wounded at Wounded Knee, Monday were brought, furnish the following as the correct list of casualties.

The dead are:

Capt. George D. Wallace, Sergts. Cogey, Dyer and Nettles.

Corporal Gone.

Hospital Steward Bollock.

Privates Frey, Johnson, Kelly, Cain,

Logan, Raman, Book, Forest, Hewell,

Costello, Kellner, Murphy, McCue,

Christensen, Danake, DeFreys and

Adams—all of Seventh cavalry. Total, twenty-seven men killed.

Result of the Indian Battle.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The Indian bureau Wednesday morning received a telegram from Station Agent Cooper, at the Pine Ridge agency, dated Dec. 30, stating that the number of Indians killed in the late battle aggregated about 150 and that 150 were wounded. There were about thirty-five soldiers killed and a number more or less seriously wounded. Father Crafts, Catholic priest, was killed. The Indians made another attack on the troops Tuesday morning, resulting in the death of two soldiers. Twelve Indians were killed and about the same number wounded.

Kicking Against a Law.

BUFFALO, Jan. 1.—Lake vessel owners are taking steps to secure the repeal of the law which requires them to furnish their steamers with line carrying projectiles. They hold that it is wholly uncalled for and the apparatus is useless as a life saver, and that the law was passed through the influence of a combination of manufacturers of such apparatus.

NOT YET HOPELESS.

Some Prospects of Settling the Dispute in Ireland.

BY THE NEXT CONFERENCE.

Timothy D. Harrington May Be Present at the Next Meeting Between Parnell and O'Brien—O'Brien Will Surrender Himself to the Police and Serve Out His Sentence—Other Foreign News.

DUBLIN, Jan. 1.—The Freeman's Journal announces that Mr. Timothy D. Harrington, member of parliament, will probably be present at the next meeting between Messrs. Parnell and O'Brien. The Journal is also of the opinion that the outlook for a settlement of the matter in dispute among the Irish leaders is hopeful, as the long interchange of views which took place at Boulogne-sur-Mer must have tended to evolve the basis of agreement.

Mr. Parnell went to Brighton from London on Monday evening, and returned to London Wednesday morning in time to catch the mail train for Folkestone, where he took the channel steamer for Boulogne. The reports published to the effect that Mr. Parnell went to Paris, thereby inferring that he there met Mrs. O'Shea are untrue.

The Dublin Express states that Mr. William O'Brien, member of parliament, intends to surrender himself to the police early in January in order to serve out his sentence.

Robber Chief Living High.

DRESDEN, Jan. 1.—At the request of the Austrian government, the chief of a large and well organized gang of robbers named Simon, was captured at Leschnitz, Silesia, where he owned a handsome villa, and lived in great style, his neighbors believing him to be a wealthy speculator on the European bourses. When Simon's villa was searched evidence was secured which shows that he was undoubtedly the head of a robbery society having agents in London, Berlin, Altona and Vienna.

Peace Established in Uganda.

LONDON, Jan. 1.—Advices from Uganda state that in a recent conflict on the frontier, Christian forces defeated Moslems, and that peace has been established throughout the country. The Protestants have opened their new church, the service being attended by great crowds. Many natives accepted the Christian faith and were baptized.

Ancient Tombs Discovered.

ROME, Jan. 1.—At a meeting of the pontifical academy of archeology, Wednesday, it was announced that a basilica in the church of St. Sylvester had been discovered, containing the tombs of six popes, including that of Sylvester I, who occupied the papal chair from 314 to 326 A.D.

A Duel with Pistols.

VIENNA, Jan. 1.—Count Deym, ambassador of Austria to England, and Count De Lutzen, first secretary of the embassy, fought a duel with pistols, near this city, Wednesday. Neither was wounded. The affair grew out of a quarrel in London over a question of precedence affecting the wives of the diplomats.

Still Barred Out.

ROME, Jan. 1.—The pope has received from Berlin a communication to the effect that the bavardes have decided to refuse permission for the Jesuits to return to Germany, but is in favor of permitting the Redemptorist fathers to return.

Lady De Ros Not Dead.

LONDON, Jan. 1.—Lady De Ros, who danced at the famous ball at Brussels on the eve of the battle at Waterloo, and whose death was erroneously announced Wednesday, is still alive, but is steadily sinking.

Carriage Factory Burned.

POTSdam, Jan. 1.—S. Zimmerman's great carriage factory at this place has been destroyed by fire.

An Important Conviction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—The society for the prevention of cruelty to children secured an important conviction Wednesday in the court of special sessions when Samuel Wallack, owner of the tenement house at No. 225 East Forty-first street, was tried and convicted of renting his property for immoral purposes. He was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment in New York city prison and to pay a fine of $500. As this is the first instance where the landlord has been convicted the case is an important one, as it strikes directly at the root of the evil.

A New Colony Formed.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 1.—Edwin Bell & Sons, coopers, having factories here, at New Castle, at Beaver Falls, at Hadley, Pa., and at Broughton, O., who recently called a meeting of their creditors have made an amicable settlement, and a new company organized, with a capital of $100,000, electing Edwin Bell president, L. E. Cochran vice president, Mason Evans secretary and treasurer, Edwin Bell, Jr., superintendent.

The Same Old Gun Story.

BARNESVILLE, O., Jan. 1.—While cleaning a gun Ned Thompson, a 13-year-old boy, was seriously hurt. The gun was accidentally discharged and he received the full load just below the knee, so that amputation was necessary. Didn't know it was loaded.

Prominent Citizen Gone.

WILMINGTON, O., Jan. 1.—Hon. Leo Weitz, former member of the state board of agriculture, died yesterday after a short illness. Mr. Weitz was a member of the National forestry congress. His funeral will take place Friday near Wilmington.

A HAWAIIAN QUESTION

Has Arisen as the Result of Kalakaua's Visit to This Country.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1.—The visit to this country of King Kalakaua, of the Hawaiian islands, will terminate sooner than was expected. The king's health has been much improved since his arrival here on the United States flagship Charleston some time ago, and it is his intention to return to Honolulu on the Charleston during the first week in January. Advices received here from Honolulu indicate that the recent departure of Kalakaua from that city on the Charleston gave rise to considerable comment on the part of resident British officials in Honolulu, who regarded with disapproval the incident of Kalakaua's accepting the courtesy of an American man-of-war.

The origin of the recent publications in this country intimating that the object of Kalakaua's visit to America, was for the purpose of opening negotiations for the sale of the Hawaiian islands to the United States government, is attributed in this connection to a diplomatic stroke on the part of the British foreign office in Honolulu, and the published statement is made here that these rumors affecting the king and his intentions emanated from that source, and that they were given currency simultaneously with the king's arrival in this country for the purpose of preventing him from receiving any official courtesies from the American government, such as were accorded the king's sister, who will succeed Kalakaua as reigning sovereign of Hawaii, on the occasion of her recent visit to England.

It is known that there has been considerable rivalry for some time past between American and British residents of Honolulu as to who should control the island government. It is also known that British residents there are partial to the king's sister. When the latter passed through this city some time over a year ago, on her return to Honolulu from England, she declined the tender of an American man-of-war, and, proceeded to Honolulu on the regular passenger steamer.

PREMATURE EXPLOSION.

Four Men Instantly Killed and Four Others Seriously Injured.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 1.—A special dispatch to The Herald from Leroy, N. Y., says: The most horrible accident that ever happened in this vicinity occurred near the village of Stafford, four miles west of here Wednesday afternoon. Andrew Hunt and three Hungarian laborers were instantly killed. Four others received injuries which it is believed will result fatally. Daniel Sullivan, the foreman, had his fingers blown from one hand, his face filled with powder, and his eyesight probably ruined, and he is otherwise terribly injured.

The accident happened on the Lehigh extension where the men were engaged in blasting the frozen earth. A blast had been fired and another one had been placed near the place where the other one had been. The men were placing the charge when suddenly there was a terrible explosion, which tore up the rocks and earth and hurled death dealing missiles through the air. It is thought that some of the fire from the first explosion remained in the ground and ignited the powder placed for the second one. It is thought that three of the injured men will die.

GROSS CARELESSNESS.

Supposed Dead Wires Very Much Alive.

Horse Killed.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 1.—About 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the Electric Street Car company turned on their current and attempted to run cars for the first time since the sleet of last Thursday night. This was done in the face of the fact that dead wires, both telephone and telegraph, were dangling along all the principal streets.

The dynamo had been running but a few minutes when a valuable horse stepped on a dead wire on Main street opposite the Phoenix hotel and was instantly killed, his rider, Mr. McKnight, barely escaping with his life. A crowd of indignant citizens quickly gathered around the fallen horse, and so loud were the murmurings of disapproval at the action of the street car company that the manager, who was on horseback, rode post-haste to the power house and ordered the engines stopped. The company will now do what they should have done at first—clear all the lines of dead wires before they turn on the current again.

WAS IT A MIRACLE?

An Aged Cripple Walks at the Command of an Evangelist.

ANDERSON, Jan. 1.—Mrs. Maria B. Woodworth, the hypnotizer, is conducting one of her characteristic revivals at the Church of God, in this city, which she founded three years ago. Monday evening Mrs. Hiram Baxter, an aged lady of this city, hobbled to the church on crutches, having been unable to walk without them for two years, owing to rheumatism and to the effects of a fall.

She immediately kneeled at the altar and began a most fervent prayer in her own behalf, in which Mrs. Woodworth joined her. At the end of a half hour's prayer Mrs. Woodworth, in a loud tone of voice, said: "In the name of Jesus of Nazareth, arise and walk!" whereupon the old cripple sprang to her feet and leaped over the railing at the altar, and shouted and sang from one end of the church to the other,

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1891.

THE G. O. P. does not begin this happy New Year under the most favorable auspices by a long ways. The party seems to be badly split on the tariff question and election bill.

THE members of that proposed Cincinnati-Louisville warehouse combine are not wishing the "Kentucky Tobacco Growers' Association" a happy New Year. Not much.

CHRISTMAS was one of the most wintry days ever experienced in this section, and now the new year comes in with a temperature that incites one to discard his overcoat, overshoes and heavy underwear.

THE State Treasurer paid out over $300,000 this week to the school teachers of Kentucky. The total educational fund distributed by the State the past year amounts to $1,730,000. Nothing small about that.

THE interesting news comes from Mexico that that country has decided to admit corn from the United States free of duty. Heretofore the tariff has been one-half cent per pound. The spirit of free trade seems to be spreading.

SOME more Republican Senators have kicked clear out of the traces on the Force bill, notably the two from Colorado. They are opposed to it and weren't afraid to say so. And they are likewise opposed to any gag rules for the Senate.

A SHREWD Massachusetts Republican says the action of his party's Representatives in Congress has brought unparalleled disaster to it everywhere. He wants a new deal, that will lighten the burdens of the people. That fellow would make a good Democrat.

HON. C. M. CLAY, JR., of Bourbon County, has been pulling the wires for the Gubernatorial contest for some time, but he has got some good men to down, in Brown, Clardy, Bryan and the others in the fight. His opposition to the secret ballot system will not help him along.

A LEXINGTON gentleman has lately seen a good many of the best Democrats in Indiana, and they are all for Cleveland, for President. Hill's "boomers" have done one thing. They have brought out Cleveland's friends and shown how strong he is and how weak their own candidate is.

WITH the coming in of the New Year comes news of the formation of a big window glass trust. That means that everybody who buys any window glass hereafter will have to go down in his pocket and contribute something to enrich the members of this combine. Such is life now-a-days.

THE year 1890 was a prosperous one for the BULLETIN. We have pursued the even tenor of our way, have enjoyed a very liberal patronage, and start in on the new year at peace with all mankind and better prepared than ever before for the struggles of the future. We are truly grateful for past favors and shall try to merit a continuance of the patronage of the public.

SCHOOL NOTES.

F. X.—SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 40.

The trustees of this school are Ed Galbraith, Pat O'Neal and Edward Gleason. Number of scholars 30. Miss Kate Murphy is the teacher, a very bright, intelligent young lady who understands the requirements of the school room. The attention and deportment of the school was good. Heard classes in various grades of arithmetic, reading, geography, U. S. history, spelling &c. Miss Murphy finds that some of her classes had been placed in too advanced studies. This causes her trouble, but we encouraged her to feel that she would soon overcome this difficulty. The school house is good, but the furniture poor and not nearly enough of it. Trustees will soon have more placed in the house.

MURPHYSVILLE (COLORED)—NO. 110.

This school is not well located, being on the edge of a declivity, requiring props to support the house on the lower side, but we learn that it is not the property of the district. We understand that there is a school house in this district and steps will be taken to have it occupied or a new one built. The trustees are Geo. Bluford, Wm. Johnson and Monroe Morris. The teacher is Miss Caldwell. Number of scholars, 20; attendance at the time of our visit, 10—all primary scholars. We heard classes in spelling, geography, arithmetic, reading, writing. Miss Caldwell manages her school well, and is evidently an experienced teacher.

WM. S. MILLS' DEATH.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury Charges the Employees of the Train With Gross Carelessness.

The Coroner's investigation of the accident that resulted in the death of Wm. S. Mills was not finished until late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Cockerill, owing to his advanced age and the inclement weather, was unable to preside, and the inquest was held by Squire Miller. The jury was composed of Messrs. William Davis, I. M. Lane, C. H. Nicholson, Geo. Schroeder, M. R. Gilmore and Josiah Wilson. The following is their verdict:

We, the Coroner's Jury, summoned to view the body of Wm. S. Mills and to inquire as to the cause of his death, find that he was run over and killed by passenger train No. 9 on Kentucky Central railroad track in Maysville, Ky., about one hundred yards from the bridge over Limehouse Creek on Saturday, December 27, 1890, about 11:30 o'clock a.m.

The jury further find that said train was backing at the time, and was proceeding rear coach foremost from the depot towards the round house; that the air-brake appliances on said train had been previously disconnected by the railroad employees, and that there was no officer or "look-out" at or near what would be the front of the train as it was then moving, to give warning either to a person on the track or to the engineer. It is the opinion of the jury that but for this gross carelessness on the part of the railroad officers and employees the killing would probably have been prevented.

Stock and Crops.

The choicest Christmas and New Year's cattle on the Chicago market brought 6 to 6½ cents a pound, and fancy sheep sold at $5 to $6 to $600.

An agent of the German government shipped from Lexington 500 head of steers, heifers and young bulls to Germany. They were a mixed lot and cost from 3½ to 4 cents.

H. N. Ware, of Washington County, writes to the Interior Journal: "The lamb crop of next year has been engaged at 5½ to 5½ cents. I have engaged one hundred fat hogs for September delivery next year at 4½ cents. This year I have sold $1,400 worth of grain and stock off of my farm."

Lehman Bros., the well-known exporters of cattle, lost 500 head at sea recently. The steamer upon which they were shipped was caught in a terrific gale and almost swamped by a sea that swept her decks clean of everything movable and either killed outright or fatally injured 500 out of 526 head of cattle aboard. The loss of the Lehmans is $50,000; insurance $25,000.

Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

Wonderful Inventions.

Reports of wonderful inventions follow closely on each other's heels. The latest is to the effect that Dr. Mandruft, of Geneva, Switzerland, has invented a very simple device for obtaining a very large quantity of electricity from little power. It is described as a solid sphere of copper 16 inches in diameter within a sphere of zinc 20 inches in diameter. By a half-horse power they are revolved in opposite directions at a speed of 500 revolutions a minute. The space between them is kept filled with steam at a pressure of six atmospheres. An electric current is evolved sufficient to run 500 incandescent lamps, a current, in fact, which converted into power equals 500 horse power. This seems to be in contravention of the law that resultant energy can never be greater than the energy applied. But there is no end to wonders in our times and there may be some unrecognized chemical energy in this invention, which, if the report is verified, will revolutionize the motor power of the world.—Cincinnati Post.

A Novel Suit.

C. B. Gilman has brought a novel suit against the Western Union Telegraph Company at Lexington. The Press says: "On the 30th of September, Mr. Gilman filed a telegram addressed to C. F. McMeekin, care of Milton Young, at the St. James Hotel, New York City, telling the latter to purchase for him a certain filly at the horse sale then in progress in New York, and limiting him to $500. But the telegram never reached its destination; the filly was bought by Eugene Leigh, who refused to part with her for $500. Mr. Gilman affirms that by the company's neglect he has been damaged to the extent of $500. The telegram was promptly sent to New York and duly received there. But the receiving operator in sealing the envelope put the wrong name on the back it seems, and while it was taken to the St. James Hotel, it never was delivered."

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1 bottles by leading druggists.

Useful Hints.

Chloride of lime is an infallible preventive for rats, as they flee from its odor as from pestilence. It should be thrown down their holes and spread about whenever they would be likely to come, and should be renewed once a fortnight.

Persons who have had new windows to wash will be sure to recollect the botheration caused by the streaks of putty, oil and drops of paint. More than half the labor of removing these may be saved by taking a wet cloth, dipping it into ordinary baking soda and rubbing the paste thus made thinly over the glass.

After this has been suffered to remain about fifteen minutes it can be easily removed by washing in warm, soft water, without soap, bringing oil and stains with it. If the glass is then rubbed dry and afterward polished with dry whiting and chamomile skin, the most fatiduous eye can discover no blemish.

A SEVERE ATTACK OF CROUP.

The Child's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

I wish to say to the public that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best I have ever used or sold for croup. I am never without it at my home for my children. Last winter a child of Mr. E. J. Wetzel, one of my customers, was choking with a sudden and severe attack of croup. I gave him a bottle of this Cough Remedy, and he started for home, gave the child two doses of it, which stopped the coughing and smothering instantly and in a few minutes the little one was out of all danger. Mr. Wetzel came back to the store as happy as he could be and said: "That bottle of Cough Remedy saved the life of my child." Furthermore I feel friendly towards you as the manufacturers of such a valuable Remedy and am proud of its being manufactured in our own State. I can cheerfully and willingly give many instances of its good works to anyone that may want a reliable cough remedy.

IT'S A GO.

The Sale of the Kentucky Central to the L. & N.—Other Railway News.

The latest news puts at rest all doubts about the sale of the Kentucky Central to the Louisville & Nashville. The contract has been signed, sealed and delivered and the L. & N. taken possession to-day. The Courier-Journal says: "The purchase is one of the most important ever made by the L. & N. The road's connections in all directions will be improved to the advantage of the country served by it."

The C. & O. has lately bought large tracts of mineral and timber lands in West Virginia.

In point of tonnage handled per mile, the C. & O. ranks about fourth among the roads of this country, and it is a new line.

Gross earnings of thirty-three railroads for the third week in December increased 8.51 per cent. For the second week in December eighty-nine roads increased 3.21 per cent.

J. C. Loomis, who was formerly with the Louisville and Nashville and more recently Superintendent of the Cincinnati division of the Chesapeake and Ohio road, has been appointed General Superintendent of the Louisville, St. Louis and Texas.

A new railroad-tie has just been patented by a Covington inventor. It consists of steel or wrought-iron tubing 8 inches in diameter and 12 inches long, fitted with proper supports to fit the rail on top and to rivet to a support at the bottom. Each tube has paper forced into it and guarded against moisture. Each piece of tubing acts as a cushion and support to the rail, while between the rails and securing these cushions is a substantial strip of iron. Great durability and strength are claimed for these ties.

MISS PEARL REDMOND, of Millersburg, and Mr. George B. Brooks, a druggist of Paris, eloped last evening to Cincinnati and were married.

LOST—Monday, pocket book containing about $15, between Helm's warehouse and Ellsberry, Brown County. Please leave it at Hill's grocery, Aberdeen, and receive reward. Jldft.

MR. THOMAS A. RESPES has sold his fine farm on the Flemingpike a few miles from this city, to Mr. Thomas Best, of Helena. There are 180½ acres and the price paid was $24,000.

THE opera house will likely be crowded to-night, and if you want a choice seat you must go early. You are assured of an enjoyable evening, listening to the gifted McGibney Family.

DON'T buy New Year's presents until you see Ballenger's elegant stock of jewelry, clocks and silk umbrellas. He has some lovely novelties that are as suitable as anything you can find for a gift.

MR. C. L. SALLEE has recovered from his recent illness and has been playing the Nimrod act for several days out at his old home near Fern Leaf. At last accounts he had succeeded in killing one rabbit.

EXTRA inducements in prices are offered by the Frank Owens Hardware Company on their large stock of coal vases and fire sets, and pearl and ivory-handle knives and forks and plated spoons to close out the goods by Jan. 1st.

THE electric street railway cars at Lexington have been provided with new ten-inch gongs to warn pedestrians and horsemen to keep out of the way. The old gongs were so small they couldn't be heard above the din of the cars.

THE Maysville branch of the Endowment Rank, K. of P., has elected the following officers for 1891:

President—Dr. T. H. N. Smith.
Vice President—W. C. Richeson.
Secretary and Treasurer—W. T. Martin.

THE Ripley Bee says: "Mr. and Mrs. Orange Sutton had a family re-union Christmas day, all their children being present but one. Among those from a distance were Wm. Sutton and family, of Minerva, and Alfred Sutton, of Mason County."

LET the men of means of Maysville turn over a new leaf to-day and go to work with a united will and make the next twelve months one of the brightest and most successful periods in the industrial history of the city. It can be done if the proper spirit is manifested.

"A DEAF mute (?) was around the other day soliciting contributions to aid him in getting a patent on a contrivance he claims to have invented, by which the deaf can hear and the dumb talk," says the Winchester Sun. He was soliciting aid to enable him to make his way to Washington to push his claim for the patent. And the fraud actually roped in a lot of suckers at Winchester. Whoever heard of a contrivance to enable the dumb to talk?

WANTED—To buy several shares in the 10th series of the Mason County Building and Saving Association. Will take as many as eight. Apply at this office.

MR. HARRY TAYLOR has given up the management of the opera house. The Hall Committee of Washington Fire Company will have charge of it hereafter.

Assistant Superintendent—G. W. Blatterman.
Secretary and Treasurer—C. W. Darnall.
Librarian—C. S. Wood.

J. A. MUNDAY, Jr., & Co., contractors on the Kentucky Union, are in trouble. Creditors at Winchester have attached for debts amounting to over $4,000. Munday had a contract at Dover during the building of the C. and O. The principal cause of the shortage is the failure of the K. U. Railway Company to pay for work done by the firm on the construction of their road.

RINGGOLD LODGE No. 27, I. O. O. F., has elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

N. G.—D. P. Ort.
V. G.—J. C. Raines.
Secretary—J. S. Wilson.

AS THE midnight hour struck, on December 24, 1890, the heart and ear were gladdened by the harmonious strains that echoed around the usually quiet precincts of the convent in our city, the midnight mass being ever one of sweetest pleasures for both sisters and pupils. This year the mass was sung by Rev. G. Bealer. The music was exquisitely rendered by the gifted and soulful music teacher, Miss Agnes O'Donnell. We congratulate the good sisters of Maysville on having secured the services of so gifted and competent a lady as Miss Egan, and we predict for Miss O'Donnell great success in the near future, if she continue under her able instructor.

MINER'S MAXIMS

It's only by comparison
That real value is determined.

Comparisons are said to be odious, but Miner's Shoes invite comparison, because they neither shrink nor suffer from the trial—they contain real value.

Professor Koch is just now the most talked-about person in Europe, and justly so, for his feat in finding a cure for consumption is worthy of admiration; still, people who buy their Shoes at Miner's will find their own feet comfortable and avoid the consumption of their income.

"Something for nothing." It sounds well in theory, but to obtain value for value suits most people in practice.

Miner's Shoes have stood the test of time, and have never been found wanting.

Compare them.

LABOR TROUBLES.

A Strike at the Carnegie Edgar Thomson Steel Works.

THREE THOUSAND MEN OUT.

The Men Ask a Reduction in Hours from Twelve to Eight and an Advance in Wages of Ten Per Cent, Which the Firm Refuses to Give—Other Strikes and Labor News.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 1.—Between 400 and 500 Hungarians employed at the blast furnaces of Carnegie's Edgar Thomson steel works struck Wednesday night, which will cause the works to shut down, throwing about 3,000 men out of employment. The existing scale of wages would have expired Thursday morning.

A new scale was presented Oct. 1, but the firm declined to sign it. In it the men asked a reduction of from twelve to eight hours and an advance of 10 per cent. The scale was again presented last Saturday at the city offices of the firm and the firm's representative again declined to sign it, and Wednesday night the furnace men struck. The firm say they will get new men. It is not known if any other branch of the works will take part in the strike.

Scotland Strikers Defeated.

GLASGOW, Jan. 1.—The general managers of the Scotch railways have announced that the strikers have been to all intents and purposes defeated. Trains are now running regularly.

ENTOMBED NINE MONTHS.

Bodies of Dead Miners at South Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Removed.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Jan. 1.—The sequel to the frightful disaster which occurred in No. 3 shaft of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company, at South Wilkes-Barre, on March 3, was enacted Wednesday.

On that date an explosion set fire to the mine in which were imprisoned Frank Cull, Hugh Dugan, M. Ferry, Thomas Williams, James O'Donnell, Patrick McNealus, Thomas McDonald and James Jamieson.

Repeated and desperate efforts were made to rescue the unfortunate men, but proved futile. The flames ravaged the mines and destroyed the workings to such an extent that it is only now that repairing forces are able to penetrate to where the lost miners perished. At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning the workmen removed a mass of debris and advanced to a point not before reached, where they came upon the remains of one or more of dead miners.

At the company's office they declined to give any particulars, but it is understood that the bodies found were those of Frank Cull and Thomas McDonald. Both bodies are said to be in a good state of preservation.

Superintendent Scott, by telephone to the main office in this city, explains that they prefer to keep particulars quiet until the gangway is fully examined, so that definite answers may be given to the frantic inquiries that will no doubt come from the excited relatives and others.

The relative of the eight unfortunate men whose bodies have lain for nearly ten months in the mine, will be denied the sad privilege of giving them Christian burial. Only fragmentary portions have been recovered and it will be extremely difficult to identify the remains with any degree of certainty. Thus far four bodies have been taken out. The workmen are bending every effort to remove the debris, and they may discover the remainder of the party. The bodies of the four victims were found just at the juncture of the gangway which would have admitted an escape, and here the remains of the mules were also found, which is of itself evidence that the men were possibly overtaken by the fatal after-damp.

PLIMSOUL'S ERRAND.

"The Sailor's Friend" Still Working in the Cause of Humanity.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—A notable man arrived in this city from England last week and has since resided almost unnoticed at a prominent hotel in Union Square. His name is Samuel Plimsoll, but he is better known throughout the world as "The Sailor's Friend."

Years ago, when he was a member of the English parliament, his vigorous and notable crusade against the over-loading of vessels and which finally culminated in the passage of a strenuous measure directed against that evil, gave him international fame and caused his name to be blessed by Jack Tars the world over. As a result of his efforts the damnable practice of over-loading vessels for the purpose of securing a large insurance and with the knowledge that they were unseaworthy has become a thing of the past.

All vessels leaving England are compelled to submit to a government survey, and, as a consequence, thousands of sailors are alive to-day who, but for the efforts of Samuel Plimsoll, would have gone to the bottom of the deep. His visit to this country is in furtherance of another humanitarian scheme.

He proposes to have introduced in the next session of parliament a bill prohibiting the importation of live cattle. Nearly every ship which leaves New York or any part of the United States, he says, is overloaded, and, as a result many vessels are lost. A ship leaves New York topheavy with live cattle and nobody is surprised when the report comes that it is lost or missing.

This, he says, is a crime which should be stopped, and he expects to be able to convince the government committee that it would be much better to prohibit the importation of live cattle, and save hundreds of lives each year, than to have a lot of feverish, slab-sided animals slaughtered for food in English abattoirs. He thinks that all the American beef required in England can be exported in a dressed condition.

MURDERER CAPTURED.

CAMBRIDGE, O., Jan. 1.—James Wherli, the murderer of James Booth, at Post Boy, was captured here Wednesday. The prisoner offered no resistance, and was placed in jail here. He will be taken to New Philadelphia.

HEAVY FAILURE.

A New York Banking Firm Makes an Assignment Without Preferences.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Arthur E. Bateman and Charles Coon, composing the firm of Bateman & Company, bankers at 57 Broadway and 1141 F street, Washington, D. C., made an assignment Wednesday to John A. Garver, without preferences. A. E. Bateman also filed an individual assignment to J. A. Garver without preferences.

That the failure was imminent was generally understood in Wall street, for Walter Watson had it announced that he had withdrawn from the firm and that he would no longer be in any wise responsible for its transactions or liabilities.

The assignment of the firm, and also of the senior member of the firm, was precipitated by the failure of the creditors upon whom they relied to meet their obligations. It is believed that the creditors of the firm are substantially secured and will lose nothing.

It was learned that the disaster was the direct result of the firm's investments in the Atlantic and Danville railroad company of Virginia. It is known that the company was a favorite one with Commodore Lateman for several years. Associated with him in its development have been certain English capitalists, and their inability to squeeze through the recent money pressure and come to the support of the firm has been the direct result of the firm's collapse.

It is not known what the liabilities or assets of the firm are, but there is scarcely a doubt that they will run up to pretty good figures. It is said there are several preferred creditors named in the assignment of the firm, especially Baldwin & Farnham, the Chicago correspondents of the house.

The members of the firm are Commodore Arthur Edgerton Bateman, Charles E. Coon, ex-assistant of the treasury and Walter Watson.

THEY WANT ANOTHER CHANCE.

British Yachtsmen Anxious to Try Again for the America Cup.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Lieut. William Henn, of the Royal navy, accompanied by his wife, came here Tuesday on the steamship Umbria. Lieut. Henn is the owner of the English cutter Galatea, and with that racer tried for the America cup in 1886 against the champion Mayflower, which beat the foreigner right handily. He said:

"I am authorized to go before the New York Yacht club and inform its committee that a challenge will be sent if the objectionable clause of the deed of gift is removed—that as to measurement. That clause is too binding and confines the givers to too narrow lines. The Earl of Dunraven would have challenged last season and raced on his responsibility if the Royal yacht squadron had permitted him. But that organization would not.

"I honestly believe the Valkyrie the superior of any seventy-foot yacht in this country. Still, she is no match for the Volunteer. I am anxious to race again for the America's cup if a fair chance offers. Both sides need another race for the cup. The conditions for the new Royal Victoria Yacht club contain all my ideas for a challenge cup, and the America cup should show the same conditions."

FAILURES OF THE YEAR.

The Number but Slightly Increased, While the Liabilities Are Much Greater.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Messrs. R. G. Dun & Company's report of the business failures throughout the United States for the entire year of 1890 shows they were 70,907 in number, being but twenty-five less than in the year 1889, when the number was 10,982. The liabilities show a very large increase over 1889, being $189,000,000 against $148,000,000, an increase of $41,000,000. These are the largest liabilities since 1884, when they amounted to $225,000,000. In Canada the failures for the year are 1,847 in number as against 1,177 the year previous. The liabilities are $18,000,000 in 1890, as against $14,000,000 in 1889.

CHICAGO BANK ROBBERS IN COURT.

CHICAGO, Jan. 1.—The South Chicago bank robbers were arraigned before Justice Robbins Wednesday and their cases continued until Jan. 6. The court fixed bonds for Featherstone, alias Hennessy, Corbett and Mullen at $2,000 each, and those of Bennett, who shot Watchman O'Brien in the leg, at $15,000. Bennett and Corbett have made a full confession to Chief Marsh concerning the particulars of the robbery. According to their story Featherstone and Mullen were the principals and they—Bennett and Corbett—tools.

AN INSANE MURDERESS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 1.—The inquest in the case of the death of the four children of Jesse Higbee, at Muldraugh, near this city was concluded Tuesday. The verdict is that the mother, Mrs. Julia Higbee, poisoned the children and is insane. Alfred Higbee, a relative, testified that he believed the mother poisoned the children; he did not believe her insane, and he thought she intended to kill the rest of the family.

TEMPERANCE LADIES DISCOURAGED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—The ladies of the Non-Partisan Women's Temperance union are considerably chagrined over the apparent failure of their efforts to bring about the use of unfermented wine, instead of the fermented article, in the communion services in the digerent churches in the city. Of the 200 pastors who were asked by circular to state whether or not they used unfermented wine, less than a score replied. Of these more than one-half admitted that they used the fermented article, while some went so far as to condemn the use of unfermented wine at communion in decidedly vigorous language.

AN ALLEGED MURDERESS GETS A NEW TRIAL.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 1.—Judge Shroder has granted "Big Liz" Carter a new trial on the ground that one of the jurors, W. L. Stevenson, of College Hill, since deceased, had expressed an opinion during the trial that she ought to hang.

Corbett and Jackson will fight to a finish before the California athletic club in May for a $10,000 purse.
